To Whom It May Concern,

Aisling McKeon and her crew, Preston Algaies and Robert Oigon, affiliated with College Works Painting, painted our house in July, 2009, and did an impressive job.

The painting was well done. The very few concerns we had were taken seriously and promptly addressed to our satisfaction. The crew arrived when expected, put in solid work hours, and tidied up nicely each day.

Aisling checked in frequently, giving direction and confirming with us that the job was proceeding to our satisfaction. Throughout the job Aisling and her crew were unfailingly courteous.

Aisling in particular approached her work with enthusiasm and energy and always with a smile.

Carole and I would recommend Aisling, Preston, and Robert without hesitation.

Sincerely,
Charles and Carole Correll
